5. Location and access

The conference will take place at the Academy Building of the Peace Palace which is located on the left side of the main building.

Important note: As a security measure, all visitors to the Peace Palace are required to present valid identification (Passport or Dutch identification card) failing which entry will be refused by security. All attendees must be registered in their own name for the Conference in order to be included on the clearance list for the security desk. As the security check procedure requires time, we request you to plan accordingly.

Parking is not available at the Peace Palace and there is limited parking space in the area surrounding the Peace Palace. It is possible to park in the car park underneath the Malieveld, located near The Hague Central Station. The Peace Palace is accessible from Malieveld/Hague Central Station via tram or taxi.

With the exception of Diplomats' and Ambassadors' vehicles, private transportation including taxis will not be allowed beyond the Peace Palace gates. Participants are requested to walk through the entrance gates for security check in before entering the Peace Palace.

Note: We request officials from embassies email secretary@primefinancedisputes.org to pre-register the license plate number of the official vehicle used for transport. Vehicle access is limited to dropping off/picking up officials and not for parking.

6. Transportation

Travelling from Schiphol Amsterdam Airport to The Hague:

- Taxi and Uber

Taxis are available from Schiphol airport. Commute time between Schiphol Airport and The Hague is between forty minutes to one hour subject to traffic conditions. Prices vary according to your journey time, but expect to pay around €100. See <https://www.schiphol.nl/en/page/by-taxi-to-and-from-schiphol/> for further information on taxis. Ubers are also readily available, see Uber at Schipol.

- Public transport

Trains are a quick and easy way to travel from Schiphol Airport to The Hague. Trains arrive and depart right below the arrivals terminal. A second class, one way ticket to The Hague will cost approximately €10. Trains depart to The Hague's main stations (Den Haag Centraal and Den Haag Holland Spoor) about every 15 minutes. The journey time is approximately 30-40 minutes. See www.9292.nl/en for details on public transport. You can then take a taxi to the Peace Palace, or from Den Haag Holland Spoor tram number 1 (direction Scheveningen, get off at Vredespaleis), or from Den Haag Centraal bus number 24 (direction Kijkduin).

Travelling from Rotterdam/The Hague airport to The Hague:

- Taxi

Taxis are widely available at the airport outside the arrivals terminal. Depending on traffic it takes between 25 to 35 minutes to get from Rotterdam/The Hague airport to the city centre of The Hague. Prices vary according to your journey time, but expect to pay around €60. See Taxi - Rotterdam The Hague Airport for more information.

- Public transport

It is also possible to reach the The Hague from Rotterdam/The Hague airport by public transport. The approximate journey time by public transport is between 45-60 minutes:

1. Route 1: Bus line 33 from the Rotterdam/The Hague airport to Rotterdam Central Station. Switch to intercity from Rotterdam Central Station to The Hague Central Station; or
2. Route 2: Bus line 50 from the Rotterdam/The Hague airport to Meijersplein RandstadRail (metro) station RandstadRail train (metro line E) to the Hague
